Introduction

A dream, a passion, a life style

Finca El Refugio[1] is a dream come true, the resulted of a passion, or rather an obsession, made of soil, sun, hard work, but we have the certainty to seeing how our hope of one day to share our dreams was fullfilled.

From here, we want to pass on our passion for wine and with this target, we bet for the quality first as guarantee satisfaction.

Our Philosophy: A job well done

Growing vines is our way of living. We are a family owned Winery based on the integral management of the vineyard and the winery.Finca El Refugio[1] currently owns 50 hectares of organic vineyards with limited production of high quality red grapes. At our winery we produce Signature Wines entitled to the IGP Tierra de Castilla Wines.

Our work is based on the satisfaction with job well done. We combine Spain and Europe's traditional ways to make wine with the most modern technologies for wines elaboration and the introduction of new varieties with the firm intention of generating modern wines preserving all its essence.The ideal climatic conditions with long harsh winters and warm summers, combined with shallow claycalcareous soils, yield grapes that produce wines which possess incredible aroma and concentrates.
